Are you interested in becoming a member of the Saugeen Artists Guild?

First, we want you to get to know us!

Our Mission is to assist established and emerging artists to network with other artists and market their work. We strive to increase awareness, appreciation and support of arts and culture. The group offers a mentoring program, workshops, guest speakers, friendships, and inspiration from each other.

We meet on the first Tuesday of the month (7pm),(except for, January and February,) down stairs classroom, at the St Matthews Lutheran Church , 356 9th St., Hanover, ON N4N2H5. Our website will notify members of cancellations due to weather.

The Saugeen Artists Guild has a maximum of 35 members and new applicants may apply throughout the year. Your application will be on file and will be notified if a member departs. Sadly, this may mean a long wait for membership in some mediums, but the wait is worth it!

Our definition of Art “Various branches of creative activity and skill concerned with the production of imaginative, original designs and ideas as applied to representations of the natural world or figments of the imagination.”
